

Advance notice

The Canterbury 3-day workshop will be held in Ashburton from 1st – 3rd November 2022

Poplars and Willows as Bioengineering Tools

National training workshops for new and experienced practitioners

- Land management advisers
- River engineers
- Environmental farm planners
- Rural consultants

Presentations, small group activities, demonstrations, field trips to bioengineered sites, problem solving in the field.

A subsequent workshop will be held in the Waikato Region in 2023.

Registration details for the Ashburton workshop will be posted on www.poplarandwillow.org.nz in September 2022.

Sponsored by NZ Poplar & Willow Research Trust, and Regional Councils.

Funding support from Ministry for Primary Industries One Billion Trees fund.